MINUTES OF DEPUTY DIRECTOR (SUPPORT)

LUNCHEON MEETING

22 May 1957

1. Mr. Lloyd reported briefly on his recent trip to Europe with the Secretary of the Navy.

2. Mr. Houston announced that a meeting will soon be held with the President relative to amending legislation on communications reciprocity. It appears that State Department, FCC, and OIM are for granting such reciprocity, the Department of Defense has taken a "dead center" position, and the Justice Department and the FBI are concerned with regard to internal security.

3. The Director wasn't too enthusiastic over the suggested names to replace the term [REDACTED] and has decided to defer further consideration of a name change for about thirty days.

4. The Killian Committee will meet with the Director on the 12th of June. The Inspector General is preparing the first annual report to the Committee. Mr. [REDACTED] will represent the Deputy Director (Support) in the preparation of this report. It is felt that the Agency's annual report to the National Security Council could also be presented to the Killian Committee, thus eliminating the need for two separate reports on the same general subject matter. Further, the Director plans to recommend to the National Security Council that his annual report be made in September when it can be made to tie in with our budget presentations.

5. The Director has asked the Inspector General to make a study of all Agency publications to determine if they are necessary, if there is any duplication and if the minimum essential number of copies are being issued. The Inspector General is also doing a study on temporary duty travel of headquarters personnel.

6. Colonel Edwards reported on the considerations of the Committee for the Celebration of the Tenth Anniversary of CIA.

8. The Proposals for construction of [REDACTED] a training building at [REDACTED] and the expansion of the Records Center at [REDACTED] were approved by the Director. These proposals had been held in abeyance pending our Budget Hearing with the House of Representatives. However, since this Hearing may be considerably delayed, approval was granted so that we may obligate 1957 fiscal year funds before 30 June.
